

Beth Israel Deaconess
Medical Center

Lunar New Year Celebration

February 18, 2010

Lunar New Year Committee Members

Patricia Calderon
General Medicine

Janice Chung
Interpreter Services

Colleen Fanguiaire
Human Resources

Ediss Gandelman
Community Benefits

Christina Ho
Social Work

Michelle Lau, MD
Hematology/Oncology

Karen Lee
Office of General Counsel

Carole Sesling
Silverman Institute for Health Care Quality and Safety

Shannon Sweeney
Human Resources

Hieu Tieu
Human Resources

Annette VanderStaay
Infection Control/Emergency Management

Sponsored by the Employee Involvement Committee

Today's Program

Welcoming Remarks

Paul F. Levy, President and CEO

Lion Dance

Massachusetts Vietnamese Scouts Association

Ethereal Dancers

Massachusetts Vietnamese Scouts Association

Greetings

Helen Chin Schlichte, Board of Directors

Chinese Dulcimer Concert

Kwong Kow Chinese School

Chinese Dancers

Kwong Kow Chinese School

According to legend, the Lunar New Year began with a fight against the mythical beast, Nien. To prevent Nien from attacking villagers, people put food outside their doors and hung red lanterns on their homes to frighten Nien away. The holiday is customarily marked by visits with family and friends, the exchange of small gifts in traditional red envelopes, firecrackers, and wearing red clothing.

